To Win Equality by Law: Brown v. Board at 50

This year May 1, Law Day falls on a Saturday. So what day should Law Day be celebrated? What about Law Week?

The choice is yours. May 1 is the official date, but feel free to celebrate Law Day/Week whenever it fits into your schedule. Don't use the excuse that you are busy the first week of May and miss out on this great PR opportunity! Brown v Board, this year's theme is both interesting and easy to work with!!

Visit the Law Day home page on the ABA website <<http://www.abanet.org/publiced/lawday/home.html>> for links to everything you need to know to participate.

Stop by and see the law library's display May 3rd -7th!

Beware of E-mail from the Law Library

The law library's email address has been "spoofed." This means that someone is sending out messages that appear to be coming from the law library, but they are coming from an unknown source, and attachments to the messages may contain a virus.

Please do not open any email messages that appear to be from the law library, unless you have requested information from the library.

Free Westlaw at the Massillon Branch

Thanks to the cooperation of the Massillon Municipal Court, members now have Internet access to the library's free Westlaw service at the Massillon Branch. The service includes all Ohio state and federal cases; Ohio forms; the Ohio Practice Library (Ohio Criminal Law, Ohio Domestic Relations, etc.); Ohio Revised Code (current and historical since 1994); Ohio Administrative Code; Ohio administrative decisions such as: Ohio Workers Compensation Administrative Decisions and the Ohio Public Employee Reporter; Keycite; Ohio court rules; Ohio Attorney General Opinions (back to 1977); Ohio Jurisprudence; Ohio jury verdicts; Ohio law reviews; public records databases; Supreme Court Opinions; and the U.S. Code. Just click on the Westlaw icon on the computer desktop to access the service. The library's password is saved. All you need to do is enter an id, which can be your name. If you have any questions about the service, please call the main library at (330) 451-7380.

Meet Alison Amsdell

Alison is our new library assistant. To help you get to know her, I have relied again upon the interview questions of "Inside the Actors' Studio." What is your favorite word? "heaven" What is your least favorite word? "regret" What turns you on or excites you? "road trips" What turns you off? "those who speak ill of others" What sound or noise do you love? "songbirds" What sound or noise do you hate? "fire alarm" Other than your present position, what profession or occupation would you most like to try? "television producer" What profession or occupation would you not like? "nuclear reactor inspector" What do you want to hear God say to you at the Pearly Gates? "Welcome, your relatives are in the garden. They've been expecting you."

FinPlan's Divorce Planning Software Coming Soon

In response to several attorney requests, the law library will be purchasing Divorce Planner from FinPlan. The software computes taxes and produces cash flow reports for parties involved in a divorce, generating comparisons of different support scenarios. For more information, call the library at (330) 451-7380.
